

TOPIC	FACT	URL
Copyrights	Short printed materials (poems, short stories, essays, etc) may be copied legally by educators, but only one copy may go to each student, and workbooks may not be copied.	www.lcwa.cofc.edu/langlab/copyright.pdf
	Copyright protects the portions of a work that are original, that were created	www.pddoc.com/copyright/copyright_facts.htm
	Copyright does not protect ideas, facts, titles, names, short phrases or blank forms.	www.benedict.com
Piracy	Works published in other countries are protected in the United States as though the works were published in the United States.	www.copyright.gov
	Defined as the unauthorized copying or distribution of copyrighted software	www.bsa.org/usa/
	In 2008, Microsoft's business went up 20% due to the crackdown on software piracy	www.fast.org.uk/
	25-50% of the software being used currently in the US is being used illegally	http://www.ed.uiuc.edu/wp/crime/piracy.htm
	U.S. FBI has a "Computer Crime Squad" that have raided homes and offices, confiscated computers and shut down offices and software piracy rings	http://www.ed.uiuc.edu/wp/crime/piracy.htm
Purchasing Agreement	Library may lend software to patrons	http://lcwa.cofc.edu/langlab/copyright.pdf
	Software may be installed at home and at school	http://lcwa.cofc.edu/langlab/copyright.pdf
	Libraries may make copies for archival use or to replace lost, damaged, or stolen copies if software is unavailable at a fair price or in a viable format	http://lcwa.cofc.edu/langlab/copyright.pdf
Acceptable Use	Federation Against Software Theft (FAST)	http://www.fastiis.org
	Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 states: The owner of the copyright has the exclusive right to copy the work (section 16). That means, it is illegal to copy software without the copyright owner's permission, with regard to software the copyright owner is the software developer/publisher.	http://www.fastiis.org
	Schools and divisions are required to establish guidelines for appropriate technology use	www.doe.virginia.gov/go/VDOETechnology/AUP/home.shtml
	AUP is a written agreement signed by students, their parents/caregivers, and their teachers	www.doe.virginia.gov/go/VDOETechnology/AUP/home.shtml
Acceptable Use	Legislation approved by the 2006 General Assembly and signed by Governor Kaine requires that each divisions AUP include an Internet Safety component	www.doe.virginia.gov/go/VDOETechnology/AUP/home.shtml
	Through legislation the Office of Educational Technology developed "Guidelines and Resources for Internet Safety in Schools" to help divisions address Internet safety	www.doe.virginia.gov/go/VDOETechnology/AUP/home.shtml

TOPIC	FACT	URL
	AUP must address (1) access to and transmission of data and information within the K-12 environment and (2) any technology-based device in school or personal device brought in school	www.doe.virginia.gov/go/VDOETechnology/AUP/home.shtml